

DES MOINES METRO OPERA 2012 AUDITIONS PRINCIPAL ARTISTS

PLEASE READ THOROUGHLY

Thank you for your interest in auditioning for the 2012 Des Moines Metro Opera season. Our Chicago auditions will be held October 21 & 22 and New York on October 24-29, 2011.

Des Moines Metro Opera is one of the country's premier summer opera festivals, with an annual operating budget of over $2,000,000. The Company features nearly 200 talented singers, musicians, coaches, conductors, directors and staff in three productions each season. Des Moines Metro Opera has presented some 600 performances of 115 productions since 1973. Hailed by the Kansas City Star as "a national treasure," patrons and the critical press (including Opera News) come from across the country to enjoy this summer festival presented in an intimate 488-seat theatre located on the campus of Simpson College in Indianola.

For the 2012 Summer Festival Season, DMMO will perform Puccini's La Rondine, Mozart's Don Giovanni and Tchaikovsky's Eugene Onegin. Principal singers will be in residence from May 25-July 15 with performances in repertory beginning June 22, 2012. Artists may be engaged for one or more roles. In addition to performance fees, shared apartment housing and travel stipends are provided to principal artists.

Generally, DMMO engages principal artists through management. Limited time will be available for artists without management who are auditioning only for principal roles. Due to significant time constraints, it will not be possible for DMMO to schedule a live audition for every applicant. An accompanist is provided for all auditions. Artists will most likely be heard for the following principal roles in the 2012 repertory:

RONDINE: Magda, Lisette, Prunier, Rambaldo

GIOVANNI: Anna, Giovanni, Ottavio, Masetto

ONEGIN: Lensky, Olga, Larina

Please note that it is possible some roles will be cast before the Chicago and New York auditions.
